

Quick Reference: Content Review Process

Last updated 13 January 2021

What is the Platform for the Decade of Healthy Ageing?

The Platform is an online, inclusive space where all the knowledge necessary for implementing the Decade of Healthy Ageing can be accessed, shared, and produced by everyone. The Platform hosts five core categories of knowledge:

VOICE

stories, interviews, quotes, multimedia

RESOURCES

publications, multimedia, databases & repositories,
commentaries, Decade News,
Decade Events

INNOVATION

research projects, advocacy campaigns, funding, implementation reports, Calls
For..., Reports from the Field

CONNECT

organisations and networks, people,
groups, discussions

SUPPORT

toolkits, training programmes

Who reviews the Platform's knowledge?

Submitters

They make sure that their submission meets the Platform's Minimum Inclusion Criteria (the 'Five Yes's – see below).

Knowledge Reviewers

A team of volunteers with Decade-related expertise who make sure that every submission adheres to the 'Five Yes's' (see below).

Platform Administrators

The Platform's overall managers, who ensure that it remains inclusive and representative of all forms and sources of knowledge. Also review Flags.

Platform Review Committee

A multidisciplinary, diverse, and cross-stakeholder group appointed by the Decade Secretariat that meets quarterly (if needed) to discuss complex cases.

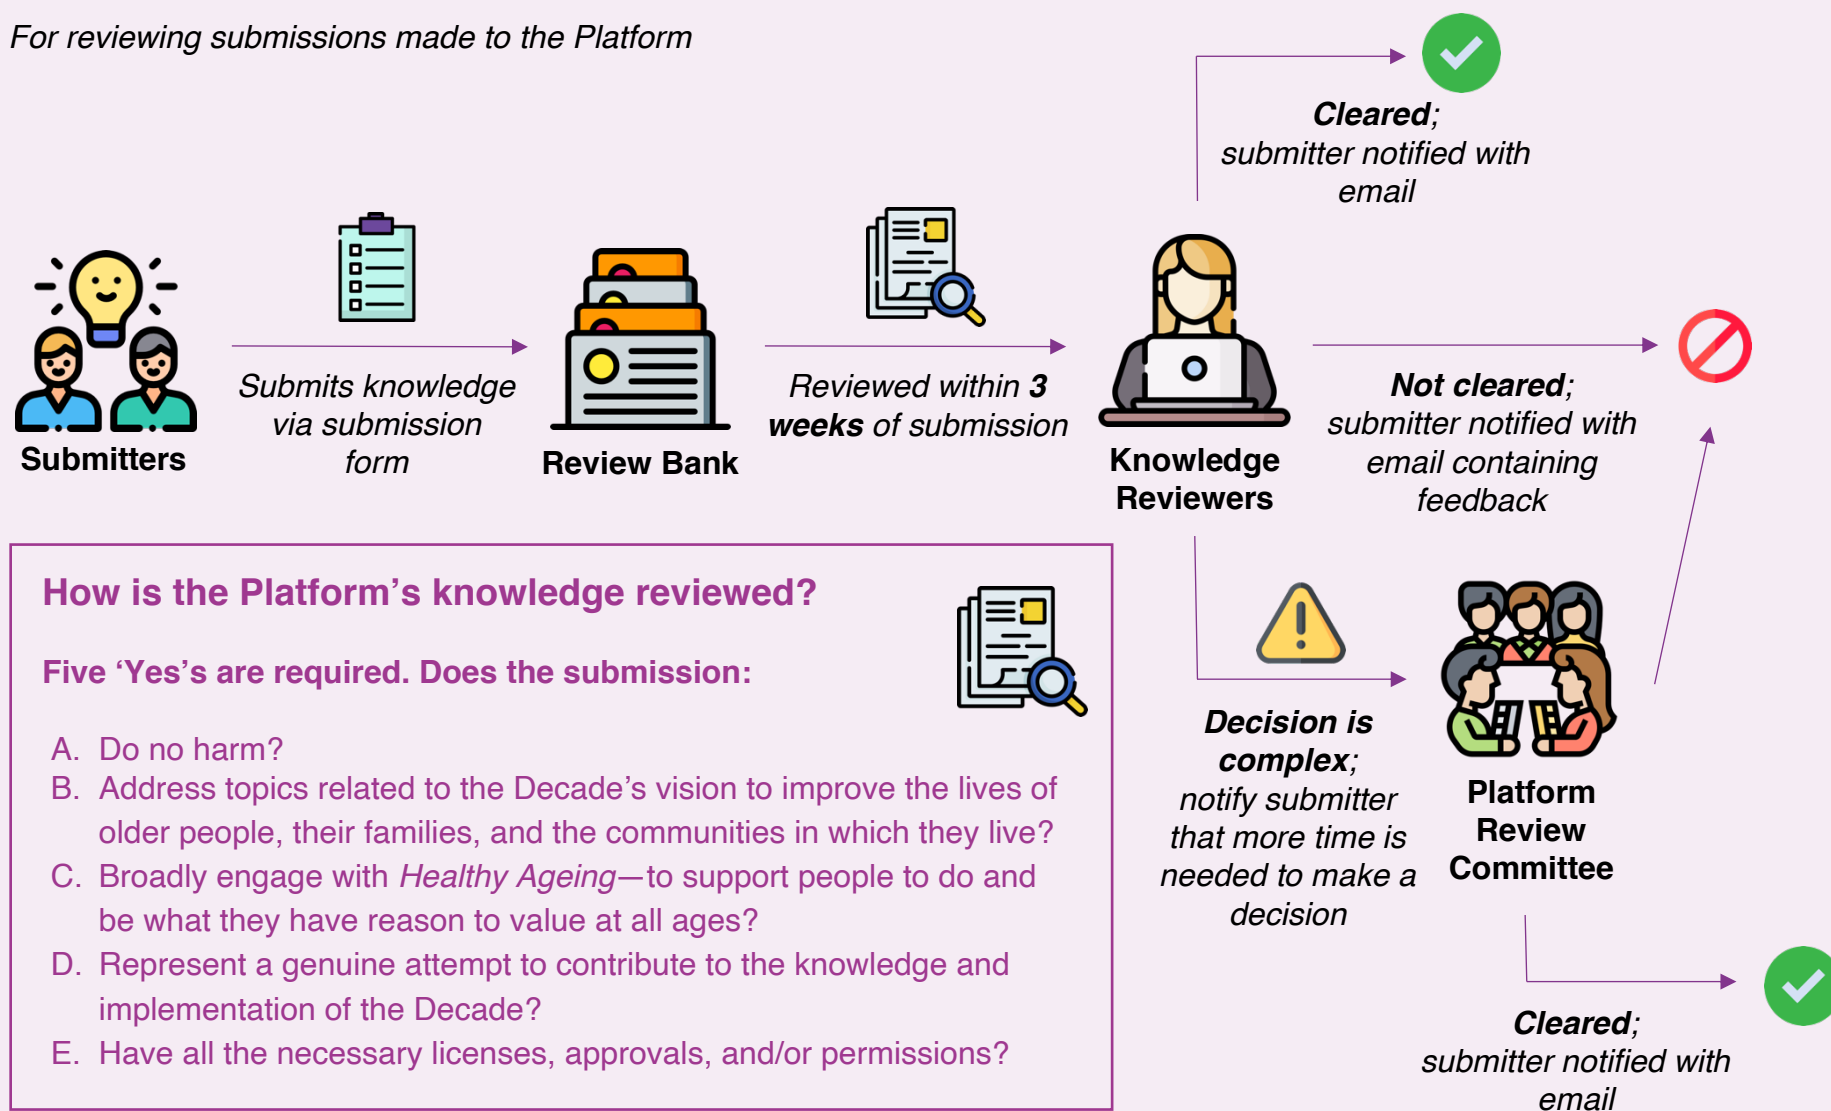

Users

Regular users also play an important role in keeping the Platform useful and safe for everyone. If you see anything on the Platform that does not look right, let us know by using the Flag button found on every item's details page.

REGULAR REVIEW PROCESS

For reviewing submissions made to the Platform

FLAG PROCESS

A mechanism to ensure action for any problematic items published in error

